Program description: The Partnerships for Success Grant (PFS) is a 5-year, $11.5 million grant awarded to Connecticut through a competitive bid from SAMHSA’s Center for Substance Abuse Prevention (CSAP). PFS allows Connecticut to continue successful community-based approaches that prevent underage drinking through the use of the Strategic Prevention Framework. This data-driven public health approach builds on existing successes of over 20 community-based coalitions that specifically address underage drinking, including several other State and federally funded coalitions and community-based programs currently in place covering each region of the State. The PFS uses environmental prevention approaches to produce measurable reductions in alcohol consumption patterns and their negative consequences. The University of Connecticut Health Center conducts evaluations at the State and community levels to track performance targets. Goals include:

- Reduction of past-month alcohol use rates for individuals ages 12–20.
- Preventing the onset and reducing the progression of childhood/underage drinking.
- Strengthening capacity and infrastructure at the State and community levels to implement data-driven, evidence-based policies, practices, and programs.
- Collaborative approach aligning State and community strategies, redirecting existing services, and leveraging human and fiscal resources to sustain efforts.

Strategy types: Twenty funded community coalitions throughout the State use a public health approach in over 30 municipalities and statewide across college campuses to decrease alcohol consumption in youth ages 12 to 20. Additionally, coalitions build on existing resources to implement environmental strategies known to be effective in reducing youth alcohol use rates, such as curtailing retail and social access, policy change, enforcement, media advocacy, and parental and merchant education as well as measure changes in underage drinking that use student survey and social indicator data.

Connecticut has recently completed implementation of the SAMHSA-funded strategic prevention framework (SPF) initiative, which identified underage drinking as a State priority. The SPF was a 5-year, $11 million initiative that brought evidence-based programs, policies, and practices to communities through a coalition approach to regions across the State. Coalitions were charged with conducting needs and resource assessments, building community capacity to address underage drinking, developing strategic plans, implementing evidence-based programs, and evaluating and sustaining efforts once the initiative ended. The majority of the coalitions were continued through SAMHSA’s Partnership for Success Grant. Highlights included: Prioritizing and addressing underage drinking at the State and community levels; leveraging, redirecting, and realigning resources in support of the SPF and the reduction of underage drinking; and strengthening State/local capacity and infrastructure in support of prevention. Findings demonstrated the following:

- A 4 percent reduction in past-month alcohol use among Connecticut high school students from 2005 to 2009.
- A 12.9 percent reduction in binge drinking among high school students.
- A 17.4 percent reduction in early-onset drinking (i.e., before age 13; Youth Risk Behavior Survey).
- A reduction in alcohol-related motor vehicle fatalities, dropping from 47 percent in 2005 to 42 percent in 2008.
- A 34 percent increase in the number of evidence-based practices, programs, and policies, including environmental strategies, funded by the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services (DMHAS).
- A statistically significant increase in community readiness to implement effective substance abuse prevention strategies and practices from 2006 to 2010.

In comparisons of local student survey data collected before and after implementing the SPF in funded communities, 71 percent showed a decrease in the percentage of students reporting past-month alcohol use.

Program description: The purpose of the Connecticut Statewide Healthy Campus Initiative is to develop a comprehensive prevention system that is responsive to the needs of young adults ages 18 to 25 who are attending public universities throughout Connecticut. The Initiative is based on a 3-in-1 Framework recommended by the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA). The goal is to change the culture of drinking and other substance use/abuse using broad-based, comprehensive, integrated programs with multiple complementary components that target individuals, including at-risk or alcohol-dependent drinkers; the student population as a whole; and the college and the surrounding community.

Objectives of the initiative are to:

- Address gaps in substance abuse prevention and early intervention services.
- Support culturally responsive, age-appropriate, and evidence-based approaches for young adults.
- Further develop Connecticut’s prevention data infrastructure and capacity to collect and analyze outcome data and report on key performance measures.

The primary target population is college students ages 18 to 25. Secondly, programs may target family members, peers, schools, and communities at large.

This initiative requires that programs use multiple strategies within the 3-in-1 framework (community, campus, and individual-level strategies known to be effective). The following is a summary list of activities:

1. Monthly meetings of the Connecticut Healthy Campus Initiative, open to all Connecticut institutions of higher education. Meetings include training by national experts, technical assistance, networking, and coalition organizational tasks geared toward sustaining efforts and promoting evidence-based activities on college campuses. Forty colleges have signed on to participate in the Initiative.
2. Grantee funding opportunities: Following a competitive request-for-proposal (RFP) process, 10 CT colleges received awards to implement evidence-based environmental strategies including policy review and creation, enforcement of underage drinking laws and policies, coalition capacity building, and social marketing. Colleges receiving the awards implement the CORE survey before and after implementation to measure the effectiveness of the strategies at reducing past-month alcohol use and binge drinking.
3. Technical assistance (TA) is provided by CT Center for Prevention, Wellness and Recovery staff to CT Institutions of Higher Education. TA includes face-to-face, telephone, and electronic consultation as requested by college staff. An electronic listserv of CT colleges will be maintained and used to provide updates on national and State alcohol and drug prevention news and information.

They were originally created in the mid-1990s to apply science- and research-based innovations to populations across the lifecycle. In 2009, following extensive review of State epidemiological data on underage alcohol use and related consequences, the funded agencies were refocused to apply the Strategic Prevention Framework and related strategies to address underage drinking and other substances that were data-identified as problems in chosen communities. Target Population(s): All Best Practice agencies are required to use a portion of their block grant funds to reduce underage drinking and related consequences. Strategy Type: The population-level approach requires agencies to use environmental strategies endorsed by CSAP, such as law and policy development and enforcement and media and marketing campaigns.

As of June 2009, the JJAC made awards to five agencies totaling $409,260 in the “combating underage drinking” category for fiscal year 2009/2010. Enforcing the Underage Drinking Laws Program (EUDL): This program supports and enhances State efforts, in cooperation with local jurisdictions, to enforce laws prohibiting the sale of alcoholic beverages to, or the consumption of alcoholic beverages by, individuals under 21 years of age. Program description: The Governor’s Prevention Partnership (GPP), a statewide resource link, serves as a nonprofit entity between State government and businesses with a mission to keep Connecticut’s youth safe, successful, and drug free. The GPP provides leadership and services to help schools, communities, colleges, and businesses create and sustain quality programs in the following areas: mentoring, coalition building, underage drinking, school-based substance abuse and violence prevention, campus community partnerships, parent education, and media. The GPP works closely with DMHAS, State agencies, and community-based organizations to maximize prevention efforts and services based on State needs and policy plans.

The GPP and State and local coalitions have mobilized toward a statewide coalition, the Connecticut Coalition to Stop Underage Drinking (CCSUD). CCSUD, in collaboration with Connecticut’s myriad stakeholders, has used State and Federal funding to achieve the following successes:

- Passage of several alcohol-related laws intended to curb underage drinking and related harms (keg registration, a “zero tolerance” law lowering the blood alcohol level to 0.02 for a driving under the influence [DUI] conviction for persons under 21, and prohibition of drive-up alcohol sales).
- A reduction in compliance check failure rates from 75 percent of merchants selling alcohol to minors to less than 18 percent over the last 8 years.
- A reduction of 8.9 percent among underage youth who report consuming alcohol in the past 30 days.

Program description: Regional Action Councils (RACs) comprise 13 public/private subregional planning and action councils covering the State that have responsibility for planning, development, and coordination of behavioral health services in their respective regions. RACs are resource links for DMHAS and are legislatively mandated to:

1. Determine the extent of substance abuse problems within their subregions.
2. Determine the status of resources to address such problems.
3. Identify gaps in the substance abuse service continuum.
4. Identify changes to the community environment that will reduce substance abuse.

This information is used by DMHAS to inform decisions related to service system plans and enhancements. RAC membership consists of diverse members of the community, including the chief elected official, the chief of police, the superintendent of schools of each municipality within the subregion, business and professional leaders, members of the General Assembly, service providers, representatives of minority populations, religious organizations, representatives of private funding organizations, and the media. Every 2 years, RACs produce Subregional Prevention Priority Reports to describe:

1. The burden of substance abuse, problem gambling, and suicide in the subregions.
2. Prioritized prevention needs.
3. The capacity of the subregions’ communities to address those needs.

These reports are based on data-driven analyses of issues in the subregions with assistance from key community members. The reports and accompanying data are used as building blocks for State- and community-level processes, including capacity and readiness building, strategic planning, implementation of evidence-based programs and strategies, and evaluation of efforts to reduce substance abuse and promote mental health. The subregional priority-setting process conducted by the RACs was instrumental in assisting community coalitions with developing strategic plans to address underage drinking in their respective communities. Priority-setting strategies include:

1. Compiling subregional sociodemographic and indicator data using data provided by SEOW and additional community-level data and information, such as student surveys and focus group results.

2. Producing subregional epidemiological profiles describing magnitude, impact, and response capacity. 3. Convening Community Needs Assessment Workgroups to conduct the priority ranking process.
RACs have also received Drug Free Coaliton (DFC) and Sober Truth on Preventing (STOP) Underage Drinking Act grants to address underage drinking in their regions.

State collaborates with federally recognized Tribal governments in the prevention of underage drinking	Yes

Program description: CT has two federally recognized Tribal nations, the Mashantucket Pequot Nation (population: 227), and the Mohegan Tribe (population: 1,700). CT also has four State-recognized Tribal nations, the Eastern Pequot Nation, the Golden Hill Paugusset Tribe, the Pawcatuck Eastern Pequot Tribe (population: 150), and the Schaghticoke Indian Tribe (population: 300). A seventh Tribal nation, Nipmuc Indian Association of CT, is currently seeking Federal recognition. The two federally recognized Indian tribes in CT, the Mashantucket Pequot Nation and the Mohegan Tribe, are located in the Norwich/New London area of eastern CT. Both have casinos that contribute 25 percent of all slot revenues to the State. Outside of the Federal government, these casinos are the second-largest contributors to CT’s economy. As a result, the casinos have provided a stable economic foundation for the Tribes and have allowed for the preservation of culture and the establishment of Tribal departments that provide a broad range of health/social benefits to members on the reservations. Coalitions/RACs in close proximity to CT’s two tribes have formal linkages and include Tribal communities within their community interventions. At the State level, DMHAS is currently working with Tribal leadership to educate them on the PFS initiative and engage Tribal representatives to serve in an advisory role, providing advice on issues facing American Indians who wish to participate in underage drinking and related substance abuse prevention programs.	Yes

The operating standards articulate a service philosophy that helps individuals, families, schools, and communities throughout Connecticut prevent the use, misuse, or abuse of legal or illegal substances.
