Additional Clarification

The total American Indian/Alaska Native population in Indiana is 0.3%.
A portion of the 0.3% American Indian/Alaska Native population is made up of the Miami Nation of Indiana. The Miamis are not a federally recognized tribe. Legislation was introduced in the 2011 session of the Indiana General Assembly to confer State recognition on the Miami Nation but the bill died in committee without receiving a hearing.

The Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians is a federally recognized tribe of 3,150 members. The land held by the Tribe in Federal trust is all located in Michigan and the Tribal government is located in Dowagiac, Michigan. The Tribe considers the Pokagon Homeland to be made up of four counties in southwest Michigan and six counties (LaPorte, St. Joseph, Elkhart, Starke, Marshall, and Kosciusko) in northwest Indiana.

The Pokagon own and operate the Four Winds Casino Resort in New Buffalo, Michigan, and the new Four Winds Hartford, scheduled to open in the late summer of 2011.

The Pokagon Band Behavioral Health Services is licensed by the State of Michigan to provide outpatient counseling for mental health and substance abuse.

Due to the Tribal government and services being based in Michigan, the Indiana Division of Mental Health and Addiction (DMHA) has not had a relationship with the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians.

However, DMHA is in the process of identifying the proper contact in the Pokagon Tribal government to ascertain the willingness of the Tribe to consult in the ongoing development of the SAPT Block Grant plan. Additionally, this could include invitations to participate as a member of the State Epidemiological Outcomes Workgroup (SEOW) or the Mental Health and Addiction Planning and Advisory Council (MHAPAC).
