Underage Drinking Prevention Programs Operated or Funded by the State

Ohio College Initiative To Enhance Student Wellness

Program serves specific or general population	General population
Number of youth served	Not applicable
Number of parents served	Not applicable
Number of caregivers served	Not applicable
Program has been evaluated	No
Evaluation report is available	Not applicable
URL for evaluation report:	http://www.DrugFreeActionAlliance.org
URL for more program information:	No data

Program Description: The Ohio College Initiative seeks to enhance student wellness by promoting the creation of campus/community coalitions that implement community-based process and environmental strategies to strengthen the campus culture by focusing on the following areas: restricting marketing and promotion, improving social and recreational options, limiting availability, increasing enforcement of policies, and creating a health-promotion environment. DFAA will work in partnership with the Higher Ed Center at Ohio State University to carry out this important work. This college intervention seeks to change the alcohol-related culture of students on college campuses, by building campus/community coalitions that identify and implement environmental strategies. This model provides training and technical support to campus faculty and top administration officials to encourage and assist in the implementation of evidence-based prevention strategies. The College Initiative has 54 4-year institutions and some community colleges engaged in this process.

BUZZKILL: Serve Under 21 and the Party's Over

Program serves specific or general population	General population
Number of youth served	Not applicable
Number of parents served	Not applicable
Number of caregivers served	Not applicable
Program has been evaluated	Yes
Evaluation report is available	No
URL for evaluation report:	Not applicable
URL for more program information:	http://www.DrugFreeActionAlliance.org

Program Description: The BUZZKILL program educates of-age college students about the serious health and safety problems associated with underage drinking. In addition to its messaging, the program supports enforcement of underage drinking laws at the local level by supporting communities to partner with law enforcement. The program takes place on a local and statewide level and runs primarily September to May, when college-hosted underage drinking house parties are prevalent and campuses can provide community education. BUZZKILL is implemented by nine other states: California, Georgia, Maryland, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas, and Wisconsin.

The Sober Truth

Number of caregivers served	Not applicable
Program has been evaluated	No
Evaluation report is available	Not applicable
URL for evaluation report:	Not applicable
URL for more program information:	http://oiu.ohio.gov/sobertruth.stm

Program Description: In keeping with the belief that education is a strong component of the law enforcement effort, the Investigative Unit presents a program called "The Sober Truth" targeted toward junior high and high school students. The program stresses the dangers and consequences of underage drinking, covering areas that range from the laws and penalties for breaking the law to real-life stories from the agents who present the program. The Sober Truth is presented in schools and to civic groups throughout Ohio. Among the requesters have been school teachers of all subjects, prom-related groups, health fair coordinators, and court-appointed class instructors, many of whom ask for the program several times a year. There is no cost for the program.
