Rhode Island State Survey Responses

State Agency Information

Agency with primary responsibility for enforcing underage drinking laws:

There is no single state agency responsible for enforcing laws designed to prevent underage drinking. The Department of Behavioral Healthcare, Developmental Disabilities and Hospitals (BHDDH) has primary responsibility for administering programs designed to prevent/reduce underage drinking. Enforcement actions are conducted by 38 municipal police departments and the Rhode Island State Police.

Enforcement Strategies

State law enforcement agencies use:

Cops in Shops	No
Shoulder Tap Operations	No
Party Patrol Operations or Programs	No
Underage Alcohol-Related Fatality Investigations	Yes

Local law enforcement agencies use:

Cops in Shops	Yes
Shoulder Tap Operations	Yes
Party Patrol Operations or Programs	Yes
Underage Alcohol-Related Fatality Investigations	Yes

State has a program to investigate and enforce direct sales/shipment laws

Yes

Primary state agency responsible for enforcing laws addressing direct sales/shipments of alcohol to minors	RI Attorney General, with the RI State Police and municipal police departments
Such laws are also enforced by local law enforcement agencies	No

Enforcement Statistics

State collects data on the number of minors found in possession

Additional Clarification

Rhode Island does not have a state alcoholic beverage control agency. BHDDH utilizes federal funding allocated to municipal police departments to support conducting a statewide Alcohol Purchase Survey of a random sample of retail on- and off-premises licensed alcohol retailers. The survey is conducted by municipal police departments. Results from the 2015 Alcohol Purchase Survey are being analyzed and should be available by 12/31/2015. BHDDH also provides some federal funding to municipal prevention coalitions for underage sale prevention strategies.

¹Or having consumed or purchased per state statutes.

²Underage compliance checks/decoy operations to determine whether alcohol retailers are complying with laws prohibiting sales to minors.

³Excluding special licenses such as temporary, seasonal, and common carrier licenses.

⁴Does not include fines imposed by local agencies.

⁵Does not include suspensions imposed by local agencies.

⁶Does not include revocations imposed by local agencies.

Underage Drinking Prevention Programs Operated or Funded by the State

Rhode Island Substance Abuse Prevention Act (RISAPA)

Program serves specific or general population	General population
Number of youth served	Not applicable
Number of parents served	Not applicable
Number of caregivers served	Not applicable
Program has been evaluated	No
Evaluation report is available	Not applicable
URL for evaluation report:	Not applicable
URL for more program information:	No data

Program Description: RISAPA is legislation that enables funding of municipal prevention coalitions. Thirty-four coalitions represent 38 of the state’s 39 municipalities. Each coalition is required by contract to develop and implement an annual program plan and logic model. All of the coalitions implement strategies to reduce underage drinking. Included in these strategies are local policy initiatives and public education. As many of these strategies are environmental strategies, the number of individuals directly served is not routinely collected.

Additional Information Related to Underage Drinking Prevention Programs

State collaborates with federally recognized tribal governments in the prevention of underage drinking Yes

Description of collaboration: The Chariho Prevention Coalition, funded by BHDDH, works with the Narragansett Tribe, whose land is within their service area. A member of the tribe is represented on the coalition and participates in the planning and implementation of prevention strategies, including those intended to prevent underage alcohol use.

State has programs to measure and/or reduce youth exposure to alcohol advertising and marketing No

Description of program: Not applicable

State has adopted or developed best practice standards for underage drinking prevention programs Yes

Agencies/organizations that established best practices standards:

Federal agency(ies): No

Agency(ies) within your state: RI Department of Behavioral Healthcare, Developmental Disabilities and Hospitals Yes

Nongovernmental agency(ies): No

Other: No

Best practice standards description: BHDDH requires the use of evidence-based programs and practices by all funded prevention providers, and the Strategic Prevention Framework is the planning model. The state has promulgated rules and regulations for the certification of prevention programs, and these rules and regulations have been incorporated into provider contracts. However, Rhode Island has not published standards specific to underage alcohol use. In addition, Rhode Island has established rules and regulations for certification of alcohol server training curricula, and these curricula must be based on best practice guidelines in order to be certified by the state.
