

NEW JERSEY STATE REPORT

Underage Drinking Prevention and Enforcement

2018

SAMHSA
Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

This State Report is required by the Sober Truth on Preventing (STOP) Underage Drinking Act (Pub. L. 109-422), which was enacted by Congress in 2006 and reauthorized in December 2016 as part of the 21st Century Cures Act (Pub. L. 114-255). The STOP Act requires an annual report “on each State's performance in enacting, enforcing, and creating laws, regulations, and programs to prevent or reduce underage drinking.” As directed by the STOP Act, the State Reports were prepared by the Interagency Coordinating Committee on Preventing Underage Drinking (ICCPUD), which is chaired by the Assistant Secretary for Mental Health and Substance Use, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Time period covered by this State Report: The 2018 State Report primarily includes data from calendar year 2017. The state legal data reflects the status of the law as of January 1, 2017. The state survey data was collected in 2017 and was drawn from the most recent 12-month period in which the states maintained the data.

*Note that in previous years, the numbers and percentages for past-month binge drinking by age group were included in these profiles. These data are not included as a separate category this year. The definition of binge drinking used in the National Survey on Drug Use and Health (NSDUH) changed in 2015 and insufficient state-level data using the new criteria exist. As more years of consistent data become available, the state profiles will include past-month binge drinking as a separate sub-group of past-month alcohol use. For more information, see <https://www.samhsa.gov/data/sites/default/files/NSDUH-TrendBreak-2015.pdf>.

Additional Clarification

All administrative charges involving underage drinking are filed with the penalty of either suspension or revocation of the alcoholic beverage license. State law allows the Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) to convert the suspension into a monetary fine. The conversion is based on the total annual alcohol sales divided by 365, times the number of suspension days. Note, the number of suspensions recorded above (97) does not distinguish between those suspensions actually served and those converted into monetary fines; the Division of ABC does not record these separately.

- ¹ Or having consumed or purchased per state statutes.
- ² Underage compliance checks/decoy operations to determine whether alcohol retailers are complying with laws prohibiting sales to minors.
- ³ Excluding special licenses such as temporary, seasonal, and common carrier licenses.
- ⁴ Does not include fines imposed by local agencies.
- ⁵ Does not include suspensions imposed by local agencies.
- ⁶ Does not include revocations imposed by local agencies.

Program Description: Effective January 1, 2012, the Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services (DMHAS) selected 17 coalition regions in New Jersey based on the “Prevention Needs Assessment Using Social Indicators: State of New Jersey Substance Abuse Prevention County Level Needs Assessment, 2011.” The needs assessment used archival data of social indicators to develop composite indices of risks to estimate the need for prevention services among New Jersey’s 21 counties. Criteria including population, substance abuse treatment admissions, and rates within the region. Prevalence of alcohol and prescription drug misuse among middle and high school students were also considered in identifying the 17 regions. Additional criteria were that each region (1) must comprise at least one county and (2) must have reported a minimum of 2,000 treatment admissions (according to the latest available data) for the previous year.

All coalitions are required to utilize environmental strategies to address underage drinking in their region. Coalitions have followed the Strategic Prevention Framework (SPF) as a planning model and have submitted strategic plans describing their needs assessments, capacity analyses, and program plans. Strategic plans were approved by DMHAS. Coalitions have identified the following root causes related to underage drinking: availability/access, social access, retail access, medical access, community norms, low enforcement, low perception of risk, parental attitudes favorable to use, peer influence, price promotion, and social norms.

Coalitions are using the following interventions and strategies in their regions:

- Parents Who Host Lose the Most Campaign
- Responsible Beverage Services
- Restricted Sales of Alcohol at Public Events
- Promote State Social Host Laws Promote/Adopt Private Property Ordinances
- Sticker Shock Campaign

In early 2014, DMHAS was awarded a Partnerships for Success (PFS) cooperative agreement from CSAP. PFS community-level funding was awarded to the 17 existing regional coalitions. One of the prevention priorities specified for PFS communities is underage drinking, an issue the 17 regional coalitions have been focusing on since their inception. The additional funding allowed coalitions to expand the scope of their work related to underage drinking to include intensive outreach and education to parents.

Over the past two years (2015-2017), coalitions have been responsible for the passage or adoption of more than 800 municipal and/or county ordinances that address issues related to underage drinking: sale, access, enforcement, etc.

Program Description: The Governor's Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse - Municipal Alliance Programs administers the state's $10 million Alliance to Prevent Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Program, the largest network of community-based antidrug coalitions in the nation with thousands of stakeholders serving on nearly 400 alliances encompassing more than 530 municipalities throughout New Jersey. Municipal Alliances are established by municipal ordinance and engage residents, local government, and law enforcement officials, schools, nonprofit organizations, the faith community, parents, youth, and other allies in efforts to prevent alcoholism and drug abuse in communities throughout New Jersey. In 2015, the Municipal Alliances revised their planning process and each alliance aligned its prevention priorities with those identified by the regional coalitions in their area. As such, throughout New Jersey, the regional coalitions and alliances are coordinating their efforts in addressing underage drinking.

Program Description: The 15-Minute Child Break is a free, interactive, one-hour presentation for parents, grandparents, and caregivers who are concerned about children (of any age) and substance abuse. Representatives from the Partnership for a Drug Free New Jersey meet with groups on location to deliver this informative, engaging, and educational presentation. Participants receive age-specific information and communication skills concerning substance abuse. Parents are empowered and supported with the assurance that, even in today's society, they are still the strongest influence in their children's lives. The 15-Minute Child Break presentation is supported by research (2000 PDFNJ Middle School Study on Substance Use) that demonstrates that kids who communicate regularly with their parents about their daily activities are 67 percent less likely to be involved in substance abuse than children who have little or no communication. The 15-Minute Child Break covers topics such as:

- Talking to your kids about drugs and alcohol
- Influence of media and pop culture
- Effects of specific drugs
- Keeping your kids drug free
- Strengthening parenting skills
- Utilizing teachable moments

Program Description: Family communication and structure are strained with each deployment. The Military Family Nights series, offered by the New Jersey Prevention Network, is based on the Strengthening Families Program, in which families practice communication skills, family meetings, effective discipline, therapeutic child play, reinforcing positive behaviors in each other, and jointly planning family activities. The program assists parents in effectively communicating with each other and in achieving desired behaviors in children by using attention and rewards, clear communication, effective discipline, substance use education, problem solving, and limit setting. Children learn stress management, social skills, problem solving, resisting peer pressure, consequences of substance use, compliance with parental rules, understanding feelings, and coping with anger. The Military Family Night program is:

Program Description: The New Jersey Prevention Network (NJPN) was 1 of 11 grantees that received funding from the NJ Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services’ Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grant (SPF-SIG). The NJPN and the Partnership for a Drug-Free New Jersey created ParentCheckNJ.com to address the identified need to reduce the nearly half of New Jersey’s 18-25 year olds who reported engaging in binge drinking. NJPN’s Social Marketing Coalition followed the SPF to implement a comprehensive program to meet data-driven needs. Research reinforces the important role parents have in affecting alcohol use of youth and this influence continues with this high-risk population. Recently, the site has been expanded to include information about opiate abuse.

ParentCheckNJ.com is an interactive learning tool and social marketing campaign designed to prepare parents of 18-25 year olds to influence their young adult children’s behavior and raise their awareness of the severe consequences of underage drinking and prescription drug abuse.

ParentCheckNJ.com was created to help parents set the foundation for these conversations by providing current research related to the negative effects of underage and binge alcohol use and opiate abuse, and to provide parents with opportunities to start the conversation with their college-aged children by sending them an e-card.

NJPN and the Partnership for a Drug Free NJ used a comprehensive advertising campaign to promote the ParentCheckNJ.com site. This campaign included web ads, radio spots, billboards, and bus signs. Additionally, NJPN used a plane banner to reach beachgoers from Sandy Hook to Cape May during the summer months. This resulted in the largest spike in web traffic during the course of our entire advertising campaign.

ParentCheckNJ.com is an interactive website that provides two educational quizzes for parents. At the end of each quiz, parents take a survey on how the quiz affected their attitudes on alcohol or opiates. Eighty-three percent of respondents indicated that they would take action based on the information given to them on the ParentCheckNJ.com website. The site also offers a list of additional resources and provides parents with information about the alcohol policies of NJ’s colleges. The site has had more than 3,250 unique visitors.

Program Description: The Sticker Shock campaign is an initiative delivered by numerous DMHAS-funded agencies and coalitions, as well as municipal alliances and DFC coalitions in New Jersey. Sticker Shock brings awareness of underage drinking, one of New Jersey's four prevention priorities. Stickers and hangers placed on the products throughout a store act as "warning" labels, informing the public of the consequences they can face if they provide or purchase alcohol for minors. The message comes across loud and clear when minors are the ones spreading the word and taking action. Parents, older siblings, older friends, etc. who buy alcohol for minors are often unaware that they themselves can get into trouble along with the individual who is not of age.

State collaborates with federally recognized tribal governments in the prevention of underage drinking	No recognized tribal governments

State has programs to measure and/or reduce youth exposure to alcohol advertising and marketing	Yes

Description of program: The Partnership for a Drug-Free New Jersey (PDFNJ) uses any and all media and formats to spread its message. PDFNJ communicates with the public through television, radio, and print; billboards; Port Authority (PATH) and New Jersey Transit signs; ads donated by Bell Atlantic in the Yellow Pages; and a host of other nontraditional communication opportunities. Working with New Jersey media to “unsell” drugs to the people – especially young people – continues to be PDFNJ’s central responsibility. It receives most of its creative work from the Partnership for a Drug-Free America, which works with the top national advertising agencies. PDFNJ does not pay for any advertising time and is grateful for support from the New Jersey media.

Additionally, youth from numerous coalitions and agencies conduct “environmental scans” at local stores and events, where they document (through photos), how the alcohol and tobacco “ID” process is handled, as well as what types, placement, and amount of advertising for alcohol and tobacco is being used. Alcohol placement and pricing is also observed. Data gathered by the youth are then compiled and shared with local government and authorities, often bringing about change in policy.

In addition to the state expenditures on underage drinking prevention reported in the annual STOP Act Survey, all states receive federal funds for substance abuse prevention through Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment Block Grant (SABG) funds, administered by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). Exhibit 1 shows the sources that New Jersey used for expenditures on substance abuse prevention and treatment in 2017. As indicated, state funds and SABG funds account for the largest sources (66.5 percent and 30.8 percent respectively).⁷

States submit Behavioral Assessment and Plan reports that include their priorities for use of SABG funds, as well as planned expenditures. For FY 2018-2019, New Jersey designated integration of services to children, youth, and young adults with substance abuse disorders as priority number six for use of SABG funds.⁸
