

“Communities That Talk” Can Educate and Prevent Underage Drinking & Smoking and Address Mental Illness, Suicide, HIV/AIDS and Sexual Violence

You do not want to miss these 3 hours of fun filled activity!!

Saturday, October 8, 2016

9:00 am - noon

Arkansas Baptist College in the Old Main Auditorium

There will be a stage play production about the effects of drugs & alcohol on the family.

Students, faculty and staff will have an opportunity to display their talents in one of 3 areas: (poetry, rap battle or art) battling for first or second place in each division winning a cash prize, all contestants will receive a certificate for participation.

If you are interested in signing up for either talent category, please email cheryl.golden@arkansasbaptist.edu to register

Keynote Speaker:
Ms. Tara Sheppard with a panel of three Social & Behavioral Health Specialist that will be able to answer questions from participants

Brown bag lunches for the first 100 program participants

